Ministry & Life Perspectives

From Safari...

Two days, life changing, incredible stories, join the multitude! The twin festivals of All Saints and All Souls kickoff November.

Since All Saints was not a holy day of obligation, you may have missed the stunning and compelling vision of a New Jerusalem in the Book of Revelation. In part we heard, "After this I had a vision of a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation, race, people, and tongue. They stood before the throne and before the Lamb, wearing white robes and holding palm branches in their hands." This is our life's goal to be counted among multitude in heaven. We hope to hear on our death bed Jesus' words to the other thief (which is from the Gospel of Christ the King this year), "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise."

All Saints Day was originally at the conclusion of Easter. It migrated to November 1 in the middle eighth century to seemingly counter, along with All Souls Day, old Celtic practices of feasting the dead. Now these days open for us the deep meaning of November: that it is in dying that we are born to eternal life.

In these first days of November all our One in Christ parishes remember all of our brothers and sisters who have gone before us. Ours is a huge family of faith not separated by time, or place, or even death. In fact at every Mass, we believe all the saints gather around the altar with us. St. Paul speaks about a great cloud of witnesses who pray for us and cheer us on, so we may join them in heaven. We also join together with all those who mourn the death of a loved one. And we remember that one day we too will die.

All Souls Day brings questions about Purgatory. The Catholic Catechism states, "All who die in God's grace and friendship, but still imperfectly purified, are indeed assured of their eternal salvation; but after death they undergo purification, so as to achieve the holiness necessary to enter the joy of heaven. The Church formulated her doctrine of faith on Purgatory especially at the Councils of Florence (1400s) and Trent (1500s)

How long is our time in Purgatory? Obviously, we have no firsthand reports. The concept of time is a human invention. I believe that our loving God would not draw out this time of cleansing. Using our human sense of time, I would say in the snap of a finger. How are we purified? Some traditions speak of cleansing fires. Perhaps it is a healing scan of God's love washing over us. Regardless it is a time of joy as we have, with God's help reached our life's goal.

Ultimately, we know it is by God's grace that we enter heaven. We cannot earn our way to heaven. Showered by God's love may our lives be filled with actions of gratitude for God's amazing graces in our lives. Let our prayers be for a life well-lived and a happy death.

AED/First Aid/CPR training Sacred Heart is offering a training for AED/First Aid/CPR for parishioners on November 11th from 6:30-8:30 in the parish hall. This is NOT a certification, but rather a training to just to know what to do if a situation arises. Please call Vicki in the Sacred Heart office to join. Space is limited. The parish will cover the cost of the training.

Widows Group We now have a widows group for the ACC. If you are a widow, you are invited! This group will meet on the 2nd Tuesday of each month, from 1-3 at Sacred Heart. The next gathering will be November 11th. Please enter through door 5-the office doors. This is not a grief group. We visit, play cards, eat a little and get to know each other. All widows are welcome!

Relics at Sacred Heart We will again have relics of St. John Bosco, St. Ignatius Loyola, and many others displayed for veneration during the month of November at Sacred Heart. These are first-class relics (a part of the physical body of a saint, approved by the Vatican as authentic). The veneration of relics is grounded in Catholic faith that our bodies are temples of the Holy Spirit. When venerating a relic, you can spend a few moments in quiet prayer and devotion. You can also touch the relic and ask for intercession of the saints for any intentions you might have. We give thanks to God for the saint's holy lives and pray for the grace to imitate them!

Fellowship Event for the ACC

The Discipleship Committee will be hosting events for all those in the ACC to join. We will have one every other month (which started in September) We will be focusing on bringing similar ministries together across the ACC. The next one will be November 16th 11:15-1 in St Stephen's parish hall following Mass. For the November event, we are looking at: Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion and Homebound Ministers. If you volunteer in those areas (or if you would just like to join us), please join us. Light appetizers will be served. Father Ron will be our speaker.

News and Events From Around the Diocese

“...because I came down from heaven not to do my own will but the will of the one who sent me...” John 6:38

When praying the “Our Father”, say the words slowly so you truly recognize what you are saying. Every day when praying this prayer, we repeat what Jesus said in the scripture passage – “thy kingdom come, thy will be done.” Even though we say these words, do our actions reflect those words? This is the difference between saints and the rest of us. Saints were faithful and obedient to God’s will. Start today – start aligning your words and actions with God’s will for you.

Thank you so much to those of you who have already supported diocesan ministries in 2025 through the Appeal. As of Monday, October 20, the Bishop’s Annual Appeal for 2025 has raised gifts and pledges of $1,301,690 toward our goal of $1,500,000 (86.78%). This was made possible through the generous donations of 6,397 people across the 16 counties of our diocese. Please pray for the success of the Bishop’s Annual Appeal and its ongoing support of diocesan ministries. To support these ministries, visit www.stedio.org/annualappeal.
